The BBC's Any Questions? is coming to Wiston House.

The Woodland Trust has recently published its latest report on the State of the UK's Woods and Trees; you can read it here. It concludes that whilst there might be elements worthy of cautious optimism, we cannot afford to continue to ignore the deep interdependencies between trees, wildlife, climate and people. Yet in the recent Government Spending Review the amount to be spent on the environment was reduced. Wouldn't it be nice to have an opportunity to ask those with power and influence how these two positions might be reconciled? Well maybe there is a chance to do just that as the BBC's Any Questions? is coming to Wiston House near Steyning on Friday 8th August. You can apply for place in the audience here.

Places will be allocated on a first-come first-served basis so don't delay in applying!
